Product Description of Shacman Dump Truck:

As an engineering vehicle, the M3000 also uses a low-top cab, and a sunshade is installed on the top of the cab, which greatly increases the driver's field of vision and provides a stronger safety guarantee for working in urban areas.

The front grille shape, the iconic Delong logo, and the circular Shaanxi Automobile logo are all elements with family gene characteristics, and also have a higher brand recognition. Whether it is night or day, Delong is a very recognizable model.

The spoiler angle has also been readjusted to effectively help reduce the vehicle's wind resistance coefficient. Although the new M3000 is an engineering vehicle and does not have excessive requirements for wind resistance coefficient and vehicle speed, Shaanxi Automobile Delong still fully considers these subtle factors and strives to increase profits for users.
