Product Description

We have a large quantity of new and used truck. You can tell us your transportation needs and we will customize a tractor with different loading weights, volumes and colors for you. A good truck will help you get the job done smoothly.

Product Description OF Shacman Tractor Truck:

The main purpose of a tractor is to tow and push heavy trailers. Equipped with high-power diesel engine and high-speed mechanical or hydraulic transmission device and main reducer. Some are also equipped with rim reduction devices to reduce speed and increase traction.

The advantages of the tractor head are extremely obvious in long-distance driving, which can greatly reduce operating costs.

The body of the Shacman truck is automatically welded by top-notch ABB robots, with 100% welding automation rate. Moreover, the welding precision is high, the solder points are evenly distributed, and there is no desoldering or virtual soldering. It can ensure that there will be no welding deformation and impact resistance in harsh environments.

The tractor truck is equipped with an aluminum alloy three-stage pedal with pedal lights and anti-skid protection. The cab is made of polyester material, which can greatly reduce cab noise and improve sound insulation quality.

Product Application OF Shacman Tractor Truck :

The tractor cab has undergone strict pressure resistance testing, with excellent safety performance and higher product quality. The thickened cab steel plate and side door anti-collision beam design can effectively enhance the safety of the cab. This tractor can handle basic transportation needs and handle some complex tasks.
